9. As the government have made it mandatory for all teachers to have B.Ed, I hope it will be much easier to get job after completion of the course.
10. I think is appropriate making B.Ed a two year programme because 1 year is quite short to complete the course with practicals and internship.

11. No, I am not pursuing other degree course via correspondence or any other course.

12. The M.Ed courses are (1st Semester)

- Philosophical Perspectives of Education
- Psychology of Learning and Development.
- Political and Economical Perspectives of Education
- Sociological and Historical Perspectives of Education
- Teacher Education in India.

(2nd Semester)

- Educational Studies
- Curriculum Studies
- Introduction to Research Methods and Statistics in Education.
- Internship in Teacher Education Institutions.
- Dissertation Related Work
- Communication & Expository Writing.

Though all are useful, Psychology is quite important in teaching and learning. Philosophical perspective is to me of least importance.
